JUNE PROGRAM

Wow! this year has certainly flown by. It is already time for our ice cream social. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate and it will be warm.. This time those with a last name beginning with letters A to L will bring a dessert to accompany the ice cream. Letters M to Z, bring a topping fruit, nuts, etc.

We are also going to do a fabric exchange and announce a challenge due in December. Some of you participated in a similar exchange at our retreat. Please bring one yard of a favorite batik. You will keep one half of it. Everyone will find out the rules at the meeting. I hope many of you will choose to participate. Round tables will be set up so come relax, visit, and stitch if you like. I look forward to seeing you there.

Her journey of personal growth in quilting is reflected in a quote, “If it doesn’t challenge you, it doesn’t change you.” [Fred De Vito]. Mel certainly shares that philosophy.

General Meeting Minutes

She encouraged all of us to get outside our comfort zone occasionally, and participating in quilt challenges is one sure way to do that. Through video and numerous colorful quilts, she shared stories of what she's experienced and the benefits to be had. "I never lose; I either win or learn." [Nelson Mandela]. What a winning attitude! Thank you Mel Beach!!

Treasurer's Report – Ruth M. gave the Treasurer's Report.

Business

Nominating Committee – Garnet W. asked for a volunteer to chair the Nominating Committee. All five board members' terms will expire this fall.

Quilt Show – Chair, Sharon J., reported that the meeting prior to this meeting was very well attended and committee chairs gave reports. Planning is off to a good start.

Ruth M. showed a block following Lynn Wilder methods [last month's speaker]; Brenda B. a large black and white quilt. There are so many fine quilters in this Guild and when they get going, some make two or three of the same quilt design while they're at it - amazing. Thank you for your shares.

QUILT SHOW BOUTIQUE

Reminder: Goodies are still needed for the Quilt Show Boutique. Please bring donations to the meetings and place them in the white, plastic bin at the end of the front table.

Please continue to work on your beautiful quilts for display at our Quilt Show!

PQG LIBRARY

Kitty and Ellie spent an afternoon re-organizing the Library cabinet. We did more purging of duplicates and outdated books to make room to access all the interesting books. The excess books will go to the Boutique sale at our Quilt Show in October. Be sure to check out the library table at our meetings. We have a good selection of "Star" quilt books, many "Artsy" and "Outside the Box" quilt books, 50+ applique books, as well as books on basic techniques and learning how to machine quilt. A full listing of all the books owned by PQG is on our website under "Library". You can search by title, author, or category. It's not possible to bring out all the books at our meetings, but the cabinet is only steps away from our meeting room, so if you ask for anything in particular, I'll try to find it, or you can look for yourself. Sometimes it's fun just to browse and bring home books for dreaming about new ideas.

Remembering Julia Jensen (1918-2018)

Yes, she was almost one hundred years old and still actively quilting!

Some interesting things about Julia:

- one of 17 Bettinelli children
- graduated from Petaluma High
- married for 51 years to Ralph
- worked as a bookkeeper
- passionate about quilting for 40+ years and all quilts were completely hand made
- founding member of Petaluma Quilt Guild
- member of Thursday Threads and Senior Center quilting groups
- loved gardening and flowers
- her daughter, Judy Harm, is a member of PQG

Known by everyone to have a quick wit and playful sense of humor, the tradition of fun and love will continue through those who loved her and knew her best.

Yes, Julia, there must be quilting for you in heaven, otherwise how could it be called “heaven”.
