May Program

Our Speaker for May, Colleen Pelfrey, calls her talk "Life With a Border Around It." She will be sharing an eclectic collection of Quilts. She starts with a few quilts made by her great grandmother, grandmother, and mom, and then moves on to her own quilting and design journey. As she shares her quilts, she also shares stories about her quilts or stories that inspired her quilts. Don't be surprised if she throws in a quilting song or two. I have seen her speak and she is a real kick. I especially encourage you to come so you will learn more about the workshop we will be having on May 25th at St John's. The workshop will cost just $40.00 and we will be taking sign-ups at the meeting.

The Workshop is titled "Taking Out the Dye." It is a little different in that you don't need to bring your sewing machine (unless you want to) and there isn't a project that you need to finish. Colleen starts with a little show and tell of the quilts she has made using DeColorant in the design process. She then teaches a variety of techniques for using DeColorant on fabric and demonstrates how to use all the tools she has acquired. Then she lets you play with her toys and gives you any assistance you might need or want for the rest of the workshop. Colleen provides all the DeColorant you need during the workshop, and sends you home with a small container at the end. After the May 7 meeting, if there are available spaces, the workshop will be opened up to non quilt guild members. If you can't make it to the meeting, please contact Becky L. if you are interested in taking the workshop.

Guild Quilt Exhibit at Petaluma Library

The Petaluma Quilt Guild had the honor of displaying 24 quilts at the Petaluma Library from January 30 to February 27. Chairperson of the committee, Gayle Stewart, enlisted nine Petaluma Quilt Guild members to show their quilts for the show. The quilters were: Jo Hagloch, Becky Lynch, Linda Carnes Jenkins, Kitty Talmage, Elisabeth Wilby, Sue Deal, Ruth Markham, Metha Schuyler and Gayle Stewart.

Much appreciation to Guild members who helped hang the quilts: Sue Deal, Becky Lynch, Ruth Markham, Gayle Stewart and Elisabeth Wilby. A special thanks to Elisabeth Wilby who bravely climbed the ladder repeatedly to hang the quilts and for serving as general carpenter! Thank you, Gayle and all of your helpers for an interesting show that proudly showed the skills of our Petaluma Quilt Guild Members.

Presidents' Letter

Greetings!

Wasn't that a time! PQG members were treated to a Mad Hatter's Tea Party for Tri-Guild Luncheon by the Santa Rosa Quilt Guild this past month.

Lunch consisted of finger sandwiches, fruit and salad, followed by delightful cookies and pastries. Our hosts were decked out in themed dress and hats, and guests were invited to wear hats also. Prizes were given to the best hats in each guild, with Gayle S. winning for PQG! The room was decorated to the hilt, and you could get your picture taken with the White Rabbit or Alice. A selection from Alice in Wonderland was read aloud, as we finished our lunches. The raffle baskets were LOADED with gorgeous fabrics and notions, and several members were winners. Our Opportunity Quilt, Eggstravaganza!, made its first outing, and received many compliments, and we sold a good number of tickets also!

And next it will be our turn! Since our year will be 2020, the theme of The Roaring Twenties has been suggested, and this has met with general approval and excitement! We have reserved a date with the community center in early April, 2020, as March was already booked up. We will need an enthusiastic committee to decide on our menu, favors and entertainment. And of course, we will be asking members to put together enticing raffle baskets. If you would like to chair this committee, we would love to hear from you!

Cheers, Sue and Marilyn
